

CITY OF SAN ANTONIO
MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
COMMEMORATIVE MARCH
Dr. King's Dream: For One, For All

Pastor Otis Mitchell, 2011 MLK Commission Chair
Councilwoman Ivy R. Taylor, Honorary MLK Commission Chair
T.C. Broadnax, MLK Commission Staff Liaison/Assistant City Manager

Martin Luther King, Jr. was born January 15, 1929. The 2011 King Holiday is the 25th anniversary of the national holiday observance and the 24th anniversary of the local Martin Luther King, Jr. March and Commemoration. The City of San Antonio MLK Commission coordinates the local commemoration.

All events are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted

Thursday, January 13

Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission recognition during City Council ceremonials

5 p.m.

The MLK Commission will be recognized for their service and continued dedication to putting on one of the most successful MLK marches in the nation.

Saturday, January 15

Hip Hop Summit

9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

The Hip Hop Summit is designed to educate the youth on current issues that they may currently be experiencing as a youth in today's society. The Hip Hop Summit offers break out session that consist of 45min to 2hr sessions that relate to teen dating, goal setting, becoming a business owner, marketing, media, and the ins and outs of the music industry. For more information, contact (210) 723-6147.

Saturday, January 15

City Year's Day of Service

9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Martin Luther King Day is "A Day on...Not A Day Off" – for people committed to making a difference in the community. City Year will host a day of service from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Volunteers will be divided into shifts from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Service projects will take place at the following locations: Martin Luther King, Jr. Park, Martin Luther King Academy, Eastside Boys and Girls Club, Greater Faith Institutional Church, Dorrie Miller Elementary, Roosevelt High School, Carson Elementary, Bonham Academy and Milton B. Lee Academy. For more information, contact Jacquelin Kogut at jkogut11@cityyear.org.

Sunday, January 16

Wreath Laying Ceremony

2 p.m.

The Wreath Laying Ceremony is held in Martin Luther King, Jr. Plaza located at the intersection of north New Braunfels and east Houston Street. During the event, businesses and organizations lay wreaths at the MLK statue to honor the life, struggles and great accomplishments of Dr. King. This year's guest speaker is Mary Dennis, Mayor of Live Oak. For more information, contact Harold Moore at (210) 449-3830.

Sunday, January 16

MLK Interfaith Service

4 p.m.

The 24th Annual Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. Citywide Interfaith Worship Service will be held on Sunday, January 16 2011 at 4 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, 404 N. Alamo. Our featured speaker will be Dr. Adena Williams Loston, President of St. Philip's College. For more information email Dr. John Abdo at dayspring_abdo@yahoo.com.

Monday, January 17

MLK Early Morning Worship Service

8 a.m. – 10 a.m.

Individuals are invited to attend the Early Morning Worship Service that takes place before the MLK March. Keeping in the spirit of Dr. King, this worship service includes music, dance, words of encouragement, prayer, poems, and overall praise for Dr. King's work. The event takes place on the grounds of the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Academy, 3501 Martin Luther King Drive. For more information, contact Bishop Rosa L. Wilson at (210) 326-7738 or by email at greaterfaithinstitutionalchurch@yahoo.com.

Monday, January 17

MLK Early Morning Worship Program

9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Individuals that are unable to march are invited to attend the MLK Early Morning Worship Program at Pittman Sullivan Park, 1101 Iowa. Enjoy a morning of music and spiritual uplifting as San Antonio celebrates Dr. King.

Monday, January 17

Hip Hop Summit Poster Making Presentation

Noon

During the MLK Commemorative Program, the winners of the Hip Hop Summit Poster Contest will be announced. The contest was geared toward youth and young adults of San Antonio.

Monday, January 17

MLK Public Awards Program

Noon

During the MLK Commemorative Program, the 2011 MLK Distinguished Achievement Award recipient will be announced along with the 2011 recipient of the Baha'i Unity of Humanity Award.

Wednesday, January 19

MLK Commemorative Lecture

7 p.m.

The City's MLK Commission and Trinity University presents the 2011 Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemorative Lecture featuring Dr. Marc Lamont Hill, social activist, political analyst, and host of the nationally syndicated television show Our World with Black Enterprise. Dr. Hill currently teaches at Teacher's College, an affiliate of Columbia University. His research focuses on the intersections between youth culture, identity, and educational processes. In addition to his teaching and research, Dr. Hill continues to work directly with African American and Latino youth.

The lecture, which is free and open to the public, will take place at Trinity University's Laurie Auditorium, 715 Stadium Drive. Parking is available at the University. For more information, contact (210) 999-7547.

2011 MLK March and Commemorative Program

Dr. King's Dream: For One, For All

Monday, January 17

10 a.m.

Join one of the largest U.S. marches aimed at remembering and continuing Dr. King's legacy. The March starts at 10 a.m. at the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Academy, 3501 MLK Drive and ends at Pittman-Sullivan Park, 1101 Iowa.

The Commemorative Program begins at approximately noon. The guest speaker will be Dr. Mary Frances Berry, the first black woman to head a major research university, was appointed Assistant Secretary of Education by President Jimmy Carter in 1977, and became commissioner and vice chairman of the United States Commission on Civil Rights in 1980. She is currently a professor at the University of Pennsylvania and remains active in a variety of social and political issues. Special musical guest gospel artist Earnest Pugh, a winner of two 2010 En Sound Music Awards and his latest CD, Earnest Pugh Live: "Rain on Us," debuted #2 on billboard and has remained on the charts for over 54 weeks. For more information, contact Dori Brown at 214-2007 or Jackie Ray Robinson at 290-6636.

Cover art: Authorized by The King Center, Atlanta, GA.
For more information about building Dr. King's Beloved Community, visit www.thekingcenter.org

MLK Scholarship Information: Each year, the MLK Commission awards $1,000 scholarships to graduating high school students in Bexar County. One of the goals of the City's Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission is to assist youth in their pursuit of higher education. Graduating seniors who are interested in applying for the MLK Scholarship may do so by visiting www.sanantonio.gov/mlk. The deadline to apply is Friday, March 4.

SAN ANTONIO PUBLIC LIBRARY

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. • BLACK HISTORY MONTH

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

For location or event information call 207-2500 or visit the library website at www.mysapl.org

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., MEMORIAL LECTURE

District 2 Councilwoman Ivy Taylor delivers a lecture in honor of the slain civil rights champion.

Carver Branch Library •
3350 E. Commerce 78220 • 225-7801
Saturday, January 15 • Noon

All San Antonio Public Libraries will honor Dr. King with special displays throughout the month of January.

AFRICAN-AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH

On the Air

As part of the San Antonio Public Library's Black History Month celebration, John "Mule" Miles will sit down with Texas Public Radio's Terry Gildea to discuss his playing days. A native of San Antonio, Miles played outfield for the Chicago American Giants from 1946 to 1948. During his career he played alongside Hank Aaron, Ernie Banks, Josh Gibson, Satchel Paige and Monte Irvin.

Central Library Auditorium • 600
Soledad Street, 1st Floor • 207-2500
Sunday, February 6 • 2:00 p.m.

Eyewitness to History

The 1963 Birmingham Alabama Sixteenth Street Baptist Church bombing claimed the lives of three 14-year-olds, Addie Mae Collins, Carole Robertson, Cynthia Wesley, and 11-year-old Denise McNair, and injured 22 people, including Addie's younger sister, Sarah, who lost an eye.

Junie Collins Williams, sister to Addie and Sarah and herself a survivor of the blast, will discuss how, in the years since, she has found peace for herself and forgiveness for those who injured her.

Central Library Auditorium • 600
Soledad Street, 1st Floor • 207-2500
Sunday, February 20 • 2:00 p.m.

Sequential Drums Percussion Demonstration

An interactive session about the different origins of percussion instruments salutes African American history.

Carver Branch Library • 3350 E.
Commerce 78220 • 225-7801
Saturday, February 5 • 2:00 p.m.

The Color of Strength

Selected readings from The Color of Strength, an anthology edited by Frederick Williams. This book has been included on the Library Journal suggested reading list for African-American History Month 2011.

Carver Branch Library • 3350 E.
Commerce 78220 • 225-7801
Saturday, February 12 • 2:00 p.m.

Herbal Tribute to Black American Heritage

Gardening demonstration featuring herbs and spices used in cookery and medicinal arts.

Carver Branch Library • 3350 E.
Commerce • 225-7801
Wednesday, February 16 • 10:30 a.m.

Black, White & Jewish

The Carver Page Turners host a special book discussion featuring the work of Rebecca Walker.

Carver Branch Library • 3350 E.
Commerce • 225-7801
Thursday, February 17 • 11:00 a.m.

Cinema Series

Selected films depict important events in the history of African Americans - please call for titles.

Carver Branch Library • 3350 E.
Commerce 78220 • 225-7801
Tuesday, February 8, 15, and 22 •
6:00 p.m.

Art Exhibit

Photographs and original artwork celebrating the culture and contributions of African-Americans.

Carver Branch Library • 3350 E.
Commerce • 225-7801
February 1-28

African American Heritage Cinema

Join us for a film exploring the African American experience

Cody Branch Library • 11441 Vance
Jackson Road • 696-6396
Saturday, February 5 • 3:00 p.m.

Activities for Children

This Little Light of Mine. . .

Let your light shine in honor of the life and work of civil rights activist Fannie Lou Hamer. We'll have songs, stories and a simple craft illuminating the contribution of this African American woman of courage and conviction.

February 1

- 4:00 p.m. - Landa Branch
- 4:30 p.m. - McCreless Branch

February 2

- 2:00 p.m. - Brook Hollow Branch

February 3 • 3:30 p.m. - Westfall Branch

February 5 • 10:30 a.m. - Bannwolf Library/Reagan High School

- 2:00 p.m. - Central Library

February 7 • 4:30 p.m. - Bazan Branch

February 8

- 11:00 a.m. - Forest Hills Branch.
- 4:30 p.m. - Pruitt Library/Roosevelt High School

February 9 • 11:00 a.m. - Memorial Branch

February 10 • 10:30 a.m. - Igo Branch

February 12

- 2:00 p.m. - Carver Branch
- 2:00 p.m. - Great Northwest Branch

February 15

- 11:00 a.m. - Johnston Branch
- 6:00 p.m. - Cody Branch
- 7:00 p.m. - Collins Garden Branch

February 16

- Noon - Guerra Branch

February 19

- 2:00 p.m. - San Pedro Branch

February 22

- 6:00 p.m. - Cortez Branch

February 23

- 10:30 a.m. - Semmes Branch

February 24

- 4:30 p.m. - Semmes Branch

February 28

- 4:00 p.m. - Thousand Oaks
- 6:30 p.m. - Las Palmas Branch